

Saturday 20th May • 10am-2pm

1. Louise & Ken 🍰🍵

81 Waller Road, SE14 5LB

An open, sunny garden designed with plenty of spaces to sit and have a cup of tea. There will be cake! And Bill, our plant doctor.

2. Hattie 🍷

18a Erlanger Road, SE14 5TG

A young garden with a focus on colour and wildlife.

3. Samuel Morton 🍰

54 Waller Road, SE14 5LA

A wild urban oasis with contemporary Scandinavian influences, centred around low maintenance and entertaining.

4. Jane Rapley

17 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NQ

Garden of two halves with: fruit trees, shrubs, perennials, a pond, lots of pots, quite a few weeds and innocently planted thugs.

Sunday 21st May • 2pm-6pm

5. Helen Le Fevre 🍰

101 Pepys Road, SE14 5SA

A long, well established garden landscaped on different levels to accommodate the hill. Shady planting, raised veg beds, mature trees and a hidden pond, a garden that's full of surprises.

8. Annie Askew 🍰

80 St Marys Road, SE15 2DU

Small garden with herbaceous borders.

11. Hazel 🍷

140 Erlanger Road, SE14 5TJ

Eclectic but happy established garden. Things grow (or not), no claim to any expertise, but enthusiasm in spades!

6. Clark Keatley & Natasha Faith

96b St Asaph Road, SE4 2EL

A small courtyard garden with a mixture of flowers and veg, salvaged architectural features and pond!

9. Barbara Scott 🍰

83 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU

A small garden that has 3 different levels. The first is just outside the French windows with multiple large pots. The next level is two large beds dissected by a path. The third level is a patio surrounded by raised beds.

12. Chris & Paul Banks 🍷

101 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NH

Long calm SE-facing garden backing on to the Nature Reserve. Home to trees, shrubs, perennials, a pond, a produce patch, lots of birds & wildlife, and many reclaimed pallet planters.

7. The Jerningham Levels

102 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NW

A combination of planted beds and structures, on a slope, but terraced to provide flat areas and places to sit in sun or shade.

10. Linda Newman 🍷

23 Reservoir Road, SE4 2NU

A sheltered garden divided into three sections, a seating area with patio, traditional garden, and gravel garden at the rear. Great for outdoor dining-weather permitting.

13. Besson Street Community Garden

Besson Street, New Cross, SE14 5AS

Enjoy the exotic and native trees, wide variety of flowers, shrubs, vegetables and fruits, as well as beehives and pond. Refreshments and activities for children. Everyone Welcome. 🍰

Saturday • 10am - 2pm & Sunday • 2pm - 6pm

14. Candace Piette 🍰

114 Dennetts Road, SE14 5LW

A long garden of rooms which struggle with one dark bed and one light, where gardening decisions are increasingly dominated by creating support for the wildlife which visits it.

16. Becky & Adrian Reed 🍰🍷

72 Bousfield Road, SE14 5TR

L-shaped 'cottage style' garden with old and new planting, rose arch, clematis and other climbers. Old apple tree with swing, and a small pond.

18. Caroline Thorp

9 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU

Typical long London garden that has been divided into sections to make it more interesting!

15. Rupert Hughes

13a Waller Road, SE14 5LE

A "wild" garden. Meadow, hedgerow and woodland species in an urban setting. Packed with plants, lots of greenery and flowers.

17. Joshua Bullock

51 Pepys Road, SE14 5SA

Long, narrow, water-loving garden on a gentle slope with eccentric features including a DIY greenhouse and a bower seat.

19. Fiona Branson 🍷

112a St Asaph Road, SE4 2EN

Fruit and veg grower. Will either have back garden open, or will have home-grown produce/plants available, in the front, as per last year.

20. Mary Lee 🍷

39 Sprules Road, SE4 2NL

A cottage garden with a twist - and table tennis!

- 🍷 Saturday 20th May 10am-2pm
 🍷 Sunday 21st May 2-6pm
 🍷 Saturday 20th May 10am-2pm & Sunday 21st May 2-6pm
- 🍰 Cake Sale
 🍷 Plant Sale

Entry to the gardens is free. Donations are welcome to fund new trees for Telegraph Hill (via Street Trees for Living). Cash donations please (card readers will be available in some gardens) No dogs please.